

Memphis Chapter - American Guild of Organists

List of Substitute Organists - revised 5 July 2010

The following persons have asked to be referred for work as substitute organists. Those who are members of the American Guild of Organists are listed first in alphabetical order. Guild members abide by the AGO Code of Ethics and are to conduct themselves in a professional manner as outlined in the Code. There are no set fees for substitute work. Each organist should establish a range of fees which take into consideration time spent in consultation, preparation and travel, as well as the actual performance of the worship service and rehearsals. Financial remuneration should be discussed early on with the contact person, with a clear understanding by both parties of the amount to be paid for services rendered.

Please notify me of changes to this list so it can be kept current.
